

Multiculturalism The Anthropologist Exercise

Instructions

- If you have a red card, you will meet with Mr. Wince in the hallway for instructions for your role in this activity.
- If you have a black card, you will stay in the room and meet with Mr. Wince for instructions on your role in this activity.

Reflection on Experience

If you had a red card, what did you think about the black card people during the activity?

If you had black card, what did you think about the red card people during the activity?

Regardless of if you were in the red or black card groups, how does this experience help you understand or begin to understand the people around you?

Multiculturalism The Anthropologist Exercise

Instructions

- If you have a red card, you will meet with Mr. Wince in the hallway for instructions for your role in this activity.
- If you have a black card, you will stay in the room and meet with Mr. Wince for instructions on your role in this activity.

Reflection on Experience

If you had a red card, what did you think about the black card people during the activity?

If you had black card, what did you think about the red card people during the activity?

Regardless of if you were in the red or black card groups, how does this experience help you understand or begin to understand the people around you?